Wake up early to watch the sun rise over the panoramic views of the rolling green countryside from the kitchen. Located in Highworth and backing onto 110 acres of uninterrupted pasture, this neat three bedroom home is set in a quiet cul-de-sac just minutes' from town's amenities and the Blackall Range. There's little maintenance required here and internal access to the single lockup garage. The backyard gives plenty of room for a shed or space for the kids to play. With views never to be built out, simply sit back and relax and watch as the sun sets over the hills.

Simple ready to move in: this is an ideal starter home or one for the downsizer... comfortable living awaits.
