

1/57 Netherton Street Nambour QLD

2  1  1

Hidden at the rear of a little complex, this home features views from every window. There's a verandah on which to enjoy the morning sun, and inside the sunny lightfilled ambience continues. Downstairs is an oversized lockup garage; upstairs are the two bedrooms with a just renovated bathroom between them. Nooks and crannies abound: there are numerous spots in which to store your belongings. Some units are "cookie cutter": this is definitely not one of them. A visitor's carpark is allocated, and the body corporate is well managed with economical fees.

Price : $ 308,000
