You will be suitably impressed when you visit this property! This is the original three bedroom home where the site was developed sometime back, with two units at the rear of the property.

The home itself offers open plan living with comfortable loungeroom and open fireplace to create the ambience. There is also airconditioning.

A large timber kitchen gives the benefits of exceptional storage with great bench space, dishwasher and cooker with rangehood. There are also solar panels.

A private front verandah overlooks a lush courtyard garden with a nice lawn area.

Great car accommodation for two vehicles plus a visitors carpark at the front of the property.
